The national TV show, "Are You Smarter Than A Fifth Grader?" hosted by Jeff Foxworthy, has been a huge hit and has claimed an impressive audience. The Chamber of Commerce Southwestern Madison County along with group of business leaders, school administrators and teachers have created the Quad Cities own production, "Are You Smarter Than Our Fifth Graders?" Participating students/schools will represent Granite City, Madison and Venice Fifth Grade students and their respective districts. Granite City High School Fine Arts and Business students will be working on the production of the event. The evening will be a wonderful opportunity for you to support extra curricular programs in all participating schools. Adult contestants will be selected from area business. Proceeds from the event will be divided between the participating schools. We hope you will join us in making this event a success! Tickets go on sale February 1, 2010 in all Granite City Elementary Schools, Holy Family and St. Elizabeth Catholic Schools, Bernard Long Accelerated School in Madison, and Venice Elementary School. Tickets can also be obtained at the Southwestern Madison County Chamber of Commerce Office 3600 Nameoki Road Suite 202 and the Granite City Board of Education Office.
